WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 23, 1868

THE R. R. R. IN A NEW GUISE. We learn that the "Rathroad Ring," so recently worsted in an encounter with the Legislature and the Press of the State, over the "Omnibus iniquity," has compassed a new "dodge," in the shape of an bill. We warn this combination in time that, for the reasons so plainly and ably set forth by Comptroller RUACK-BURN, they will be and must be defeated. The State is not in a condition just now-with a heavy debt hanging over her and her credit threatened with irobjects in view. If Speaker Rich-ARDS and Mr. RYDER are not irretrievably in the interests of this kind known to be sponsored or fathered by the parents of the "Omnibus" arrangement. The interests of the people ture of Louisiana passed a law ordering of West Tennessee, no less than these of a certain amount of State printing to be the whole State, demand this of them.

Let the crop amount to a few hundred thousand bales more or less; of one thing we feel assured, that by March next it will bring a good round price.

The consumption of cotton in this country last year was $50,000 bales; the annual increase of cotton manufacture in this country is more than ten per cent, and as stocks of cotton and cotton goods are running low, it is probable that we shall not export much mere than we did last year—1,650,000 bales. Since the war the consumption of Amarican cotton in Europe has steadily increased, whills that of India has correspondingly
